

In Memory of
Everett Morris Brewer
1945 - 2024

Everett Morris Brewer, son of the late Henry Edward Brewer and Mildred Arcelia Welch Brewer, was born April 14, 1945, at Gainesville, Missouri; he was the youngest son of eight children. He entered into eternal rest February 24, 2024, at the age of seventy-eight years.

Everett graduated from West Plains High School in 1963. He was in the Missouri National Guard, ranked sharp shooter as Military Police in the 1960's. On September 2, 1966, he was married at West Plains, to Linda Lee Ford. Everett was a store manager in the Wal-Mart company since 1977, Houston, Missouri. Everett was proud to say he worked his way up in the company from stock boy in 1969. He managed the West Plains location from 1980 - 1993 upon his retirement. He was active in local civic clubs including United Way, Lion's Club, West Plains R-7 School Board Member and Chamber of Commerce (President 1984). Everett and Linda raised three successful children, Michelle, Jason and Nathan.

Everett had a passion for hot rods that was cultivated by his older brothers. He started Corvettes Unlimited as a hobby in 1988. He and Linda enjoyed building and designing houses throughout their 57 year marriage. Everett transitioned into retirement combining his success in business with his passion for classic cars. In 1993 he moved his family to the Springfield area and launched his full time dealership with his wife and sons. Everett had two grandchildren, Logan and Megan. He enjoyed sharing his love of cars with them both.

He is survived by his three children, Michelle Titus and husband, Jay, Springfield, Missouri, Jason Brewer and wife, Diana, Ozark, Missouri and Nathan Brewer, Nixa, Missouri; two grandchildren, Logan and Megan; and his siblings, David Brewer, Don
